

SECURITY FOR SPEAKERS AND ATTENDEES AT
FDIC HOTEL AND TRAINING CENTER:

IDENTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

The FDIC building security policy requires that all individuals entering the hotel/training facility must have the appropriate ID.

An individual need not show ID upon first entering the lodging facility to check in.

Thereafter, building security policy requires that all individuals must show photo identification (ID) to gain access to the lodging and training centers. No longer are the security guards allowed to let an individual enter the facility with just the hotel pass. The guards are required to see the individual's photo ID as well (after initial hotel check in). Visitors will be given "Visitor" tags, but must also display a form of photo ID when entering the buildings.

Please refer to the following table for clarification.
